

8 DAYS ITINERARY FROM PPR TO ST TROPEZ

Day 1: Port Pin Rolland / Porquerolles (2 hours). Spend the night in Langoustier Bay. Porquerolles is a small paradise where cars are forbidden and can only be visited by bike or on foot. The village with its small harbor is a perfect place to relax.

Day 2: Porquerolles / Saint-Tropez (6 hours) Mooring in the Bay of Canebiers. Stroll around St Tropez to rub shoulders with the jet-set but do not miss to discover the old port, the citadel and the charming old town. Stroll through the narrow streets and visit the Annonciade Museum.

Day 3: St Tropez / Bonporteau Bay (2 hours) Beautiful mooring with crystal clear waters and sandy seabed.

Day 4: Bonporteau Bay / Port Cros Island (4 hours) If the French president is not present, you can anchor at the foot of the fortress, otherwise there is a beautiful anchorage north of the bay on a beach surrounded by pines.

Day 5: Port Cros / Porquerolles (1h30) Be guided by the arrow that indicates the path of the botanical garden, where you will discover the magnificent landscapes of Port Cros. For snorkeling fans, the seabed is incredible. Short crossing to the Bay of Alicastre in Porquerolles.

Day 6: Porquerolles / Embiez Island (3 hours) Anchor to Grand Rousseau Island to the west. Visit the oceanographic museum. Take a stroll on an island where cars are forbidden.

Day 7: Embiez Island / Pin Rolland Harbor (2 hours) Return to base in the afternoon.

Day 8: Port Pin Rolland
